

Skimstone Arts presents

JACK AND JILL & THE RED POSTBOX 2015 National Tour

“Strong performances and subtle, affecting writing from artistic director Claire Webster Saaremets... a poignant lifeline to normality.” – The Scotsman

SKIMSTONE
ARTS

Jill is starting to forget names and how to make the bed...

Jack and Jill & The Red Postbox is a sensitive, humorous and challenging multimedia and physical theatre performance, with original music and projection. It invites us to follow the considerable changes in the lives of Jack and Jill, and their children Lucy and Peter, due to a diagnosis of dementia.

"The performances are quite lovely, gentle and very honest... Skimstone Arts have made an admirable show, conceived and presented with the utmost tenderness and understanding."

- THREE WEEKS EDINBURGH

"It's a beautifully crafted piece of theatre, which captures the tensions of dementia really well."

- PRISM ARTS

"Powerful...authentic...humorous...emotional. It was fantastic, thank you."

- AUDIENCE MEMBER

Tour Dates 2015

Wed 4 Mar	Theatre by the Lake, Keswick, Cumbria	theatrebythelake.com	017687 74411
Mon 23 Mar	The Witham, Barnard Castle* Country Durham	skimstonearts.org.uk	03000 267684
Tues 24 Mar	The Gala Theatre* Durham City	skimstonearts.org.uk	03000 267684
Tues 19 May	Jesmond Community Festival Royal Grammar School, Newcastle	jesmondfestival.org.uk	0191 2128930
Thurs 2 July	Stage 2, Northumbria University Newcastle	conferences.ncl.ac.uk/bsg2015	0191 2087213
Thurs 10 Sept	The Courtyard Hereford	courtyard.org.uk	01432 340555
Fri 11 Sept	The Swan Theatre Worcester	worcesterlive.co.uk	01905 611427
Sun 13 Sept	Theatre Severn Shrewsbury	theatresevern.co.uk	01743 281281

* Free performance for people living with dementia and carers presented by Durham County Council

 Free public performance presented by the British Society of Gerontology

